

TimeOut

COPENHAGEN

DANISH DESIGN

BY LAURA HALL

You'll find classic Danish furniture everywhere in Copenhagen from the chair you sit on in the library, to cool bars and restaurants. For accommodation, the Hotel Alexandra is a delight.

A superb example of Danish style, the express intention of the owners is to create a small hotel where guests feel they are staying at the home of a Danish design-loving friend.

Staff are all trained in design history; the experience is intentionally retro (with a 1950s and '60s theme), and fully focused on experiencing a certain slice of the city's culture.

